Amateur Beer Gets Husband in Trouble

New York, June 6 - The homemade stuff got into caurt yesterday and after the process had been de-scribed, and Magistrate Groehi had een told just in what proportion the berry juice had been mixed with the yeast, the defendant in the case was sentenced to six months in the work-house for disorderly conduct. Mrs. Mary Hausman of 404 East 82nd street said that the high cost of beer was what had been her husbeer was what had been her hus-band's undoing. For years and years, she said, William had been the dand-lest little hubby in the world, solaced by a drink now and then of the 5 per cent, beer dispensed at the corner cafe. Lately, however, William be-ran taking up the new methods, and dis nature changed.

After indulging a bit in a brand of Hausman homemade berry juice on Wednesday night, Mrs. Hausman With Friend Wife said, he returned from the cupboard in such a terrible state that he became abusive and followed it up with actual physical violence. He hit her on the eye, Mrs. Hausman said, knocking her to the floor, Mrs. Hausman then went out and called a > Magistrate Groehl made no ment on the case when Mrs. Haus-man had finished her side. He pro-nounced sentence and sat back in his chair with what some persons in the court room thought was a sigh of profound regret. His intent, no doubt, was not to probe the suspect-ed evils of home brews.

NEW BRIDGE

Highway Commissioner Charles J. Bennett announced last night that three bids had been received for the erection of the new Washingto bridge in Stratford and open at the office of the State Highwa Commissioner in Hartford yesterds The three bidders were Stewart & Co. of Newton, Mass., Arthur Mc-Mullen & Co. of New York City, and Snare-Trieste of New York city, and Snare-Trieste of New York city.

It was said that in view of the large amount of money involved, no contracts would be awarded until next week.

The Lila Lee company, under the direction of Robert Thornby, is in Yosemite, making scenes for a coming Paramount production. Darrell Fom is playing opposite Miss Lee.
